Guttenburg Horses Not to Be Entered at the Brooklyn Meeting.

RAMBLER'S VERY FAST RACE.

Washington's Meeting Ends To-Day-Jockey Reagan's Good Riding.

A week from to-day and the duttenburg meeting closes. The horses that have participated in the racing there during the Winter will scatter in every direction. The light class horses will probably go West and the cothers to the Gloucester tracks and other places where small meetings will be held. They are outlaws, and under no circumstances will they be permitted to race on the tracks under the jurisdiction of the Board of Control. The Guttenburg meeting of the club. The Board of Control Brst landed a swinging right-hander that staggered the Association somewhat, and then the Law and order league swooped down upon the bookies and made their lives miser. the Law and Order League swooped down upon the bookies and made their lives iniserable for many weeks. The management smiled through it all and are still smiling. The Board of Control harmed the track only in taking away a few high-class horses so that the racing this spring was not near so good as it was last year. There will in all probability be no opposition made by the probability be no opposition made by the Guttenburg Association to the big tracks. The management sees the futility of such a thing in an agreement sees the futility of such a thing in an interview with an Evening World Honor of Miss Stanton. and money would be lost by the carrying on of such a campaign. Both sides are propably in the Corrigan-Coney Island Jockey Club matter. It has been reported for several days that the entries of Guttenburg horses would be received at Brooklyn during the Spring meeting. The rumor is dealed by those in meeting. The rumor is desired by those in nuthority. There is a character however, that several jockeys may be ventistated. In con-firmation of this it may be said that one prominent owner is reported to have asked a Guttenburg jockey to ride in the Handicap for him.

The Handicap candidates are being pushed along rapidly in their work and hext week the reports of aimatingly fast trials will come in with such requency that favorites will be made day by day. Probably on Tuesday or Wednesday mest of the candidates will be asked the question, and then the aspirations of many owners will be by yed up or dashed to pieces according to the performance of their horses. this weakness he was an excellent cook.

He could read and write Bengali, and the menu for breakfast, for lunch and for dinner was always written by him and the khansamah, and either submitted for my inspection or filed on a hook in the kitchen. It is desirable to have the kitchens whitewashed and the copper cooking vessels tinned at least once a month, and the cook should be supplied with pienty of soap and sods and dusters and cloths of all sorts, so that he may have no excuse for anything being left

Then and only then can the mistress or physicians at an autopsy, having for years been retired, was found sick at 155th street master of a house pay an unexpected a professional surse. By some means I was and Eighth avenue at 6.15 o'clock this visit to the kitchen without the chance of morning. He was taken to the Morrisania police station, from where he was taken to the Manhattan Hospital. Sergt. Horbeit was first-four years old and lives at 586 Broome street.

I wish that I could have brought and in the chance of experiencing something analogous to the Bombay episode of a Chinese cook who cook to England with me. In some dishes he was incomparable. The late Lord Napier, of Magdala, when a passing gnest one day, suggested that the man must be a French cook, and poor Lord Canning, when he came on a visit to my station on public business, declared that a souffle made by my cook was superior to souffles made by his own chef. By his doctor's orders Lord Canning had a souffle every day for his junch. The doctor considered it the most wholesome food in India at midday.
